WOOD ONLY ONE WHO MAY NOT HAVE WON BY COMPROMISE.

FORCED BY HIRAM Threats of Bolt Bring Agreement Satisfactory to All Factions.

By DAVID LAWRENCE. Copyright 1920 by Janesville Gazette, Chicago, June 11.—Everybody won, nobody lost. That's the only Impressionistic sketch of Murray Crane, veteran Massachusetts leader and former senator.

interpretation which can be placed upon the unanimous adoption of the plank in the republican national platform with respect to the league of nations. Everybody won except possibly Leonard Wood and nobody hangs a tale. It has much to do with the future of Hiram Johnson and much to do with the fortunes politically of Gen. Wood.

Back in Washington all the senators including the group of irreconcilables led by Senators Johnson, McCormick and Borah made a gentlemen's agreement that they would not favor the treaty and Wilson league

SENATOR JAMES E. WATSON Indiana with the party plank.

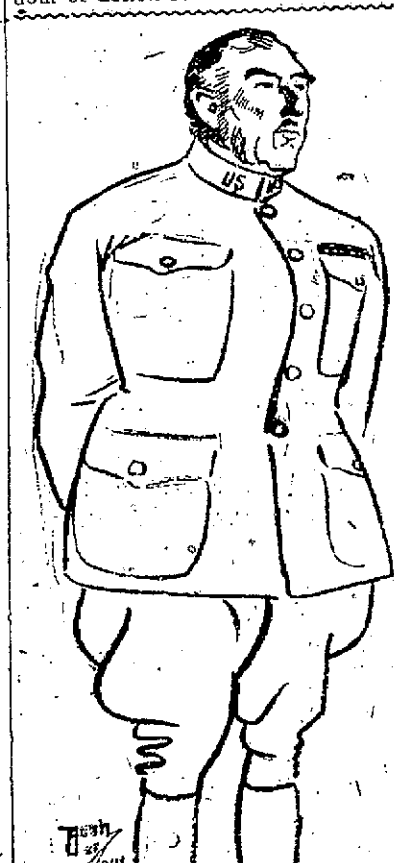

In Chicago. But former Senator Murray Crane who wanted a party to the agreement insisted on an affirmative statement favoring ratification of the peace treaty "with proper reservations."

Almost Won Fight. He almost won his fight. He had a majority in his hand but a threat from the Borah-Johnson group that they would carry the battle to the floor caused the board of strategy which is running this convention to take serious counsel as to what might be the effect of a Johnson victory on the league issue if he made an impassioned speech and second what might be the effect of a Johnson victory if the delegates instructed for the California Senator were released. Certainly if Mr. Johnson won his fight on the platform they reasoned that he would be the logical nominee of the convention for president. And if he lost the delegates previously held by Johnson would look to Leonard Wood, as they have shown signs of doing.

Confession of Loose Hold. Indeed, the statement by Johnson threatening to carry the fight into each state where delegates instructed for him might desert was a confession of his loose hold upon them.

The republican party avoids making a statement concerning the future policy toward the treaty of Versailles except by inference and to that extent preserves the support of Senator Hiram Johnson but on the other hand does make an affirmative statement for international cooperation to be accomplished by complete freedom of action for the United States.

Characteristic pose of General Wood.

The democrats will claim that the Versailles treaty furnishes the machinery for that international cooperation.

If Hiram Johnson were not such a factor in the choice of a candidate

SENATOR MILES POINSETT, Washington is one of the delegates with "very sparse hair." In fact he hasn't any until way back.

this convention would have favored ratification of the peace treaty with reservations but reasons of party expediency secured compromise.

Johnson Loses Big Chance. The effect upon the selection of a candidate cannot be underestimated.

Hiram Johnson has lost his big chance to sway this convention toward him by a speech on the league of nations and is virtually out of the race. He himself has been anxious to stay regular. Senator Borah wanted to quit the party. Hiram wanted to stay. There was little else to do but compromise if he wanted to remain in the republican party. And it is being convincingly represented to Senator Johnson that he better keep an eye on the future that while the country may think him too radical today, the republican party might not object to picking him four years hence if he plays his cards right. The Lewyden generals for instance are whispering that Governor Low-den is for a one term plank and that if Senator Johnson plays ball, now, he will improve his chances of getting the support of the regular republican organization in 1924.

WOOL PROFITEERING INDICTMENTS QUASHED

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.) New York, June 11.—Indictments charging profiteering against the American Woolen companies of New York and Massachusetts and William Hughes, president of the corporations, were quashed today by Federal Judge Macle. Judge Macle sustained a demurrer interposed by Charles B. Hughes, special counsel for the defense, which held that Woolen goods did not constitute wearing apparel and therefore did not come within the meaning of the law.

BEING "SHOT" BY CAMERA ARMY AT THE CONVENTION

A small army of camera men has been busy since the arrival of the earliest birds at the G. O. P. convention "shooting" the lights and lesser lights of the army at work when William Hale Thompson, Chicago mayor, greeted Frank H. Hitchcock before the Congress hotel between sessions.

LA FOLLETTE MAN IS HOOTED OFF FLOOR AT CONVENTION

GROSS ATTEMPTS TO OFFER MINORITY REPORT ON RESOLUTIONS PLATFORM.

IS MET BY HISSES His Motion Shouted Down, Whitehead and Lockney Vote No.

Coliseum, Chicago, June 11.—Heat at 23 and the lateness of the hour when a start was made by the republican national convention Thursday afternoon caused the delegates to adjourn to 9 o'clock this morning.

There was only one sensational feature and in that Wisconsin, namely, the Wisconsin La Follette caucus as the man to present the platform on which the La Follette consin to the convention, was hissed and hooted off the floor when he attempted to make the Wisconsin document a part of the republican platform.

Galleries Boisterous.

Chairman Lodge had to threaten to clear the galleries in order to give Gross a show.

The convention was a singularly united one on the support of the platform. Just before the vote was taken on the Milwaukee man rose. Chairman Lodge introduced him as Mr. Gross of Wisconsin who desires to present a minority report on the platform.

A storm of jeers and cries of "No" and "Go home" followed.

Lodge Demands Order.

Senator Lodge pounded his gavel to no purpose.

"The convention will be in order," he said, "to permit Mr. Gross to present a minority report signed by himself."

There was a roar of laughter and cries of "Throw him out" followed. Gross faced his audience in absolute silence, very white and apparently nervous.

"You have a plank for free speech in your platform," he finally said, "and yet you would deny me the right to be heard."

Greeted by Hisses.

He started to read the Wisconsin platform and finished it with the attention of the delegates except once when he said "You need not be afraid to applaud, it won't hurt you," and a storm of hisses came. He then finished and addressed the convention saying:

"The people of the United States want to know whether the republican party is for or against a league of nations. If you are against a league, why don't you adopt the strong plank I have suggested and smash the league?" This started the crowd off on another rampage with cries of "Trotzky!" and "Bolshevism!" "Although I may have been humiliated here, I want to tell you that there are thousands of people on the outside who agree with what I have said."

Turning to Senator Lodge, he asked for a roll call by states. On the question of substituting the minority for the majority report.

Motion Shouted Down.

There was no second to the motion. It requires two states to second an adoption of a minority report.

Senator Lodge called for a ye and nay vote and the motion was shouted down. The only votes for the substitute being from the La Follette delegates from Wisconsin, the two members from the first district voting no.

The convention itself started at 4:40 and adjourned at 7:45 until today at 9. During the wait for the resolutions committee. Uncle Cannon made a speech. Efforts to sing were futile. The convention was a hot and sticky mass of humanity and wanted action.

MOZART CLUB TO BE GIVEN BANQUET

Plans for banqueting the members of the Mozart Glee club of Madison preceding the concert to be given at the Congregational church next Monday evening are nearing completion. The preparation of the banquet, according to announcement made by David Reese, chairman, will be in the hands of the wives of the men on the reception committee. Mesdames Reese, E. J. Clarke, Oscar Athlon, F. J. Blair, W. W. Dale and Arthur Fisher.

The Mozart club, an organization of business men of Madison, founded 20 years ago, will make its first public appearance in this city Monday evening, under the auspices of the Men's Chorus club of the Federated church.

Alexis Boas, director, has agreed to sing a solo number as a special favor, according to Mr. Reese, who was formerly a resident of the capital city and a member of the club. Mr. Boas' appearance will be an added feature to the program of club members which has won a wide reputation for the organization in its home city.

BALLARD BODY STILL UNCLAIMED; ADDED

The body shipped from Janesville to Colorado last month may be that of three persons: Earl Ballard of Longmont, Colo.; Joe Donovan of New York city; or Homer Stone of Maryville, Mo. Ballard's relatives in Longmont refuse to claim it.

The newest angle to the situation came yesterday with receipt by police of a letter from a former landlord of the boy, Mrs. W. C. Stone, 142 North Bellaire avenue, Kansas city. She said he had given her the name of Joe Donovan saying his father and several brothers and sisters lived in New York city. Mrs. Stone was written to by Desk Sgt. Harvey Jones after part of a newspaper had been found in the dead man's cap bearing her address.

A letter to the same newspaper, Democratic Forum, Maryville, Mo., brings out that a youth by the name of Homer Stone has been missing there for some time. This angle is being followed up by police here.

The letter from Kansas City has been turned over to the local Red Cross which in turn plans to have the chapter at Longmont handle it.

American Maids Will Adorn Home Sands Again Despite Europe's Call

Europe's conditions are still so unsuitable that tourists prefer the sure fun of a vacation at home and so American girls will adorn the sands of the American beaches this summer dressed in that most alluring of costumes, the one-piece bathing suit. Despite the fact that a certain motion picture producer would like to have us believe that the one-piece bathing suit is the proper garment for all beach wear, the powers that rule at the various well-known American beaches have decided otherwise, and on most beaches one must have bloomers and at least a semblance of a skirt and sleeves as well as hose. It really is a good idea, not that the one-piece suit is not proper; it is, instead, the only proper garment for swimming. Almost all others are far too cumbersome for a real swimmer to bother with. The truth of the matter is that there are few girls or women who can wear a one-piece bathing suit and not be offensive to the eye, and things which are not pleasing to the eye are so often vulgar. Hence the one-piece suit is taboo, at least at most public beaches. Here are two pretty suits which will be worn by the American girls who will patronize home resorts instead of European watering places. They are rather conservative, it is true, but they are simple of line and permit freedom of movement. The one at the left is of henna wool jersey. The blouse is edged in sand color at the waist, sleeves and neck. Purple satin fastens the suit at the right. It is made in one piece and worn over jersey tights. Orchid satins in folds trim the suit and fastens the cap. In the center are two jersey models for the junior misses. The one at the right is a one-piece suit of rose trimmed in white. This little miss is the only one who can wear a "one-piece" with modesty and decorum. The other suit is also in one-piece, but it is made to resemble a two-piece suit. It is the best type for the younger girls who really swim. This one is made of purple and white jersey.

STRATEGY USED TO NAME MAN

Penrose. Both King and Hertz are vehemently opposed to the Wood candidacy and to Frank Hitchcock. Mr. Hitchcock, by the way, is represented as having to win this fight. Mr. Wood, Mr. Hays will be displayed as national chairman and the former postmaster general will run the campaign.
Johnson Really Out.
So the messages are carried back and forth and the bluffs and felts are made in the great nomination and is powerful only in that he can name the presidential candidate by releasing his delegates and withdrawing in favor of another contender. The belief persists that when he is once convinced that he can't win, he will go on the ticket with Philander C. Knox, former secretary of state, former attorney general, former friend of Roosevelt and Taft, and unquestionably the man who would strengthen in New York and Massachusetts and together with Pennsylvania this would be enough to win.
Coolidge For V. P.
It may be necessary to make the ticket Knox and Coolidge to catch the fancy of Massachusetts, and if that is possible, there are some Lowden delegates in populous Ohio who might be brought into camp by making the ticket Knox and Hays. All these moves are under consideration as the convention makes an effort to finish its business by Thursday night. A deadlock in the balloting would upset all calculations and keep the convention here to the middle of next week.

SALT SHORTAGE ALARMS FARMERS OF ROCK COUNTY

Janesville and Rock county are experiencing a shortage of barrel and tub salt that endangers the livestock industry of the county and also preservation of meats and perishable foods.

This information was given out today through R. T. Glasco, county agent, who reports that there is no salt to be had anywhere in the county. He has checked up on reports received from farmers, he states, and declares that the Janesville Wholesale Grocery Co. and J. Green & Son, biggest dealers here in the commodity, have requested the farm bureau to use its influence to procure some immediately.

Farmers to be brought to the attention of the county agent through a resolution passed at a meeting of the farm bureau members of the towns of Janesville and Rock county at the county seat last night, calling for an investigation of the situation and appointing a committee to take proper means of relief. Telegrams were sent today to the heads of the Milwaukee and Northwestern railroads asking that cars be freed at once and sent here with salt. To Senator Hancock also requests aid in getting cars.

Cars Shortage Is Cause. It is stated that the shortage of freight cars is the main cause for the situation. The salt has been ordered by the dealers in the best of cases, but it cannot be brought here for lack of cars. It is the worst of the worst, said Mr. Glasco, motor trucks will be used.

"Cattle must be salted at least once a week," said the county agent, "especially when they are feeding grass. If the situation is not relieved, the production of milk will be cut down tremendously. Moreover, all stock will be in danger of becoming without their allowance of salt."

T. M. B. Gunn and Hugh Kennington, on the salt question. They have instructions from the farm bureau to procure storage space here for the article.

WILLIAMS SAYS HE WANTED GARAGE

to the cars stored in the garage and owned by private individuals. He did not think that other buildings in the vicinity might catch fire from flying sparks. This was brought out by questioning by Judge Maxwell, who asked Mr. Williams:

"How many cars were in the garage that you or Mr. Bellman did not own?"

"Believe about eight or nine, sir."

"All of them, sir."

"Did you know whether they were insured or did you insure them?"

"No, sir."

"If a new building had been erected on that land, would you have rented it?"

"Sure, sir," he replied very sharply.

WILLIAMS' PARTNER TO BE EXAMINED MONDAY

Examination of Edward Bellman, partner of J. S. Williams in the Bellman-Williams Auto Co., at Evansville, will be held in municipal court here at 9 o'clock Monday. Bellman was implicated by Williams in examining the fire during a gross examination held by Deputy State Fire Marshal L. M. Shearer. He is held in $500 bail.

Because he is deaf and can be communicated with only through written questions, Bellman could not be interviewed today. His wife, Clara, declared that on the day of the fire, she and her husband had planned to make a trip to Fort Atkinson to be with their son for a week during his graduation from the high school at that place. She said that they left Evansville at about 7 o'clock that evening, special work on a magazine going to the appointed hour of 4 o'clock, and arrived at the home of his mother shortly after 10 o'clock.

At about 11 o'clock a phone message was received for Mr. Bellman. Because of his deafness, Mrs. Bellman answered. When she took up the receiver, she started to a reporter. Williams was on the wire. He did not speak coherently she claims, declaring that all he said was that the big garage had burned down.

"Oh, it is awful, awful. I am out of my head. There was an explosion in my eyes, my ears, my nose. I remarked was all she could get out of him."

She then called the home of a neighbor at Evansville to get the details.

Had Nervous Trouble "Mr. Williams was always peculiar," she stated. "He was not well and suffered from a nervous trouble. I remember one time when he came to our house and sitting on a sofa, and he had his hand across his eyes and forehead and said that he was out of his mind. There were other occasions when he declared he thought he would go crazy and said he had so many troubles. The Wednesday after the fire he came to us and asked me where was the nearest physician. When I questioned him further, taking it as a joke, he said no more."

Williams' Wife Present Mrs. Williams, wife of the guilty man, a frail Englishwoman, was present in the courtroom. Her face was red. She had been weeping. "My husband has not been well for a long time," she said. "On the night of the fire, he came home all excited and could not get to sleep. He kept putting his hands up to his eyes and crying. 'My eyes, oh, my eyes,' I asked him what was the matter and all he said was that there had been an explosion. Just then I heard a big noise and all the people shouting. He would not tell me what he had experienced but called for a doctor. When we got one and he was treated, he wanted to go out again. The physician forbade it, but he went anyway. When he came back, he could not sleep, but paced up and down the floor all night, in and out of the room and said he was out of his mind and kept talking about his eyes."

Just Back From England Mrs. Williams declared today that she returned only a month ago from a year's trip to her home in England to find her husband in worse health than he had been when she left. He came to the United States here, he had been confined for six months in a private sanitarium for his eyes, and sometimes seems to be out of his head altogether.

Whether "Slim" Walsh will pitch for the Sumner tomorrow is a question which will depend upon the decision of Doctor Munn this afternoon. "Slim" has been having trouble lately with his appendix and an X-ray which has been taken of it has indicated this afternoon. The plate will determine whether an operation will be necessary. Walsh has been doing himself up at the orders of the "doc." He has at taking medicine, and all the rest, with a fighting purpose of keeping away from the knife. Manager Perry is in the hope that the inflammation, if there be any, may be kept down and Walsh remain in the lineup.

Digest of Republican Platform

Chicago, June 11.—The republican party platform is a comprehensive document of many columns of type. It opens with a denunciation of the unpreparedness of the country for the war, and the democratic administration's responsibility for the war and the peace both.

It reviews the work of congress on reconstruction and tells of its responsibility for the passing of the woman suffrage amendment. It has constructive remedies for the agricultural situation and the relations of capital and labor are treated in a long paragraph recognizing the justice of collective bargaining and pledges itself for legislation to lockout the number of strikes and lockouts.

There is a pledge to the country for economy and a denunciation of the democratic party for its failure to pay for postal employees and a reorganization of the postal service to restore its efficiency.

Other planks in the platform referring to the treaty and important subjects are:

The housing shortage has not only complicated the study of ways of stimulating building, but it has brought into relief the unsatisfactory character of the housing accommodations of large numbers of the inhabitants of our cities. A nation of home-owners is the maintenance of the principles of liberty and law and order upon which our government is founded.

Both nation and state governments should encourage in all proper ways the acquiring of homes by our citizens. The United States government should make available the valuable information on housing and town planning collected during the war. This information should be kept up to date and made currently available.

THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS.
The foreign policy of the administration has been founded upon no definite conception of our nation's rights and obligations. It has been humiliating to America and irritating to other nations, with the result that after a period of unexampled sacrifice our motives are suspected, our moral influence impaired and our friendly stands discredited and friendless among the nations of the world.

We favor a liberal interpretation of foreign policy founded upon definite moral and political principles, characterized by a clear understanding of and firm adherence to our own rights and unfailing respect for the rights of others. We should afford full and adequate protection to the life, liberty and property and all internal rights of every American citizen, and should require a proper respect for the American flag but we should be equally careful to manifest a just regard for the rights of other nations.

WAR POWERS OF THE PRESIDENT.
The president clings tenaciously to his autocratic war-time powers. His veto of the resolution declaring peace and his refusal to sign the bill repealing war-time legislation, no longer necessary, evidence his determination not to restore to the nation and to the states the form of government provided for by the constitution. This usurpation is intolerable and deserves the severest condemnation.

TAXATION.
The burden of taxation imposed upon the American people is staggering; but in presenting a true statement of the situation we must face the fact that while the character of the capitol can and should be changed an early reduction of the amount of revenue to be raised is not to be expected. The next republican administration will inherit from its democratic predecessor a floating indebtedness of over $1,000,000,000 the prompt liquidation of which is demanded by sound financial considerations.

for more than a century, and it ignored the universal sentiment of America for generations past in favor of international law and arbitration and it rested the hope of the future upon mere expedients and negotiations.

The unfortunate insistence of the president upon having his own way without any change and without any regard to the opinions of the majority of the senate, which shares with the treaty making power, and the president's demand that the treaty should be ratified without any modification, created a situation in which senators were required to vote upon their consciences and their oaths according to their judgment or submit to the command of a dictator in a matter where the authority and responsibility under the constitution were theirs and not his.

The senators performed their duties faithfully. We approve their conduct and honor their courage and fidelity, and we pledge the coming republican administration to such agreement with the other nations of the world as shall meet the full duties of America to civilization and humanity in accordance with American ideals, and without surrendering the right of the American people to exercise its judgment and its power in favor of justice and peace.

WILL REFORM TAXES.
Pointing to its history and relying on its fundamental principles, we declare the Republican party has the genius, courage, and constructive ability to end executive usurpation and restore constitutional government to fulfill our world obligations without sacrificing our national independence, to raise the national standards of education and general welfare; to reestablish a peacetime administration and to substitute economy and efficiency for extravagance and chaos; to restore and maintain the national credit; to reform unequal and burdensome taxes to free business from arbitrary and unnecessary official control; to suppress dishonesty without denial of justice; to repeal the arrogant claims of any class and to maintain a government of all the people as contrasted with government for some of the people, and finally, to secure the cooperation and unity of all citizens in the solution of the complex problems of the day, to build a more just, more prosperous, and more proud of its past, sure of itself and of its institutions, may look forward with confidence to the future.

La Crosse.—Confronted by the refusal of the common council to authorize the construction of two additional schools because of the high cost of building materials, the board of education ordered its building department to have plans made for barracks to house the overflow of pupils from three schools, which by Sept. 1. The state department of education threatened withdrawal of state aid for support of the school here because poor quarters are provided for these defective children.

PROFITEERING.
We condemn the Democratic administration for failure impartially to enforce the anti-profiteering laws enacted by the Republican congress.

FOR ASSOCIATION OF NATIONS.
The republican party stands for agreement among the nations to preserve the peace of the world. We believe that such an international association must be based upon international justice and must provide methods which shall maintain the rule of public right by the development of law and the decision of impartial courts, and which shall secure instant and by revision of war-imposed taxes unsuited to peace time economy.

PRaises SENATORS' ACTIONS.
That covenant repudiated to a degree wholly unnecessary and undignified the time honored policy in favor of peace declared by Washington and Jefferson and Monroe and pursued by all American administrations.

CLINTON.
[By Gazette Correspondent.] Clinton, June 11.—The Mutual Chautauque begins a five day program here Sunday afternoon June 13, holding two services daily, afternoon and evening. Sherman, and Miss Ida Sherman went to Delavan lake Tuesday to spend the balance of the week at the Osmond cottage.

Dr. and Mrs. Herman Koch went to Chicago Tuesday. Dr. and Mrs. T. J. Crew and Thelma Rector spent Tuesday in Delavan.

SOME ASK OILING OF WASHINGTON STREET.
Residents on North Washington street, this city, are complaining about the great amount of dust and consequent inconvenience being raised by the heavy traffic of motor cars, trolleys, wagons and other vehicles using the street. While no action has been taken to ask for relief of any sort, there is talk of a petition to have the roadway oiled.

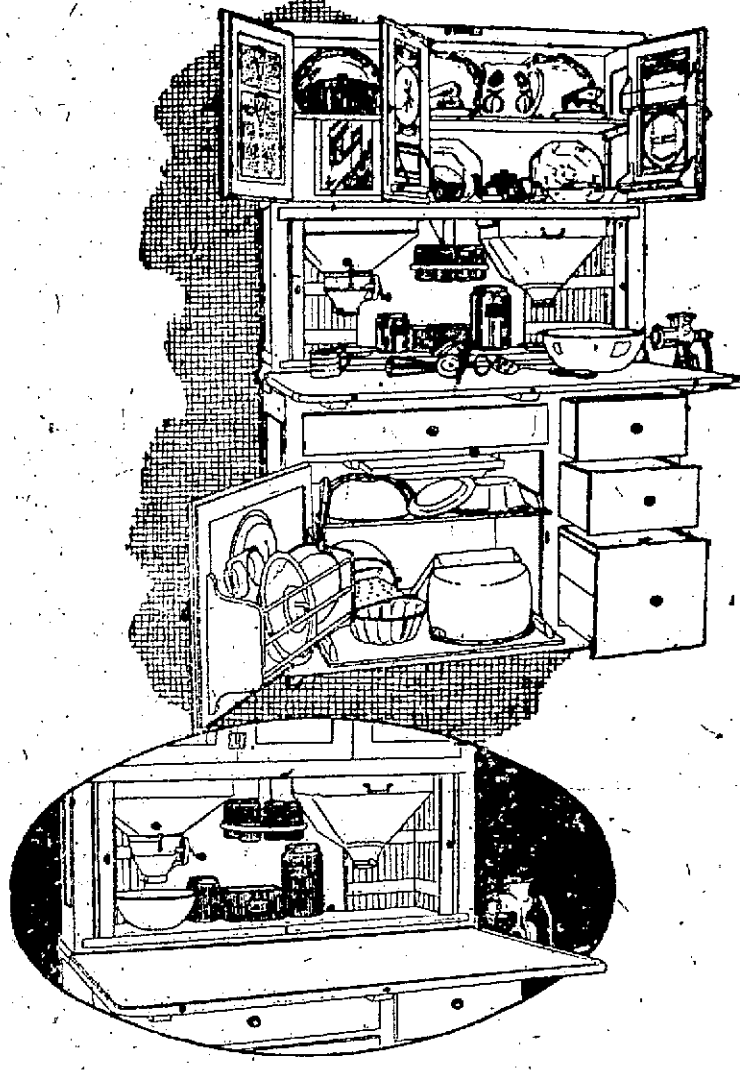

With the shutting off of the 35th-geron highway while a new road is being built to that city, North Washington street has had a considerable increase in the number of autos using it.

It in addition to these going to and from Madison and intermediate points. "The dust is terrific," said one woman. "During the summer months, when we should have the windows open, it is impossible to keep up with the dirt and we are compelled to keep cleaning all the time."

The street in question was oiled two years ago, but the practice was discontinued upon complaint of city dwellers that they tracked the oil into their homes.

La Crosse.—For the second time negotiations to settle the building strike, which has been on for seven weeks, failed. In the final conference, after all indications pointed to a settlement, the conference again split on the question of closing up or open the employers said after the meeting they would make no further attempts to settle the difficulty but would proceed to run their business as best they could, hiring such men as were available. By strike, and $2,000,000 worth of building construction work is tied up.

All-Seeing Periscope
Grant M. Hyde.
"Can a submarine captain see all around his submarine with his periscope. Daddy, or can he see in only one direction?"

"Some can see all around and some can't. There are two kinds of submarine periscopes. 'With the older kind, which was the only thing in use until recently, the submarine captain can look in only one direction at one time—he must turn the periscope around to sweep the horizon. While he is looking in one direction, another boat may run on him from behind. The newer periscope, known as the observation periscope, gives him a view of the entire horizon at once.

"The older single-vision periscope (Fig. 1) is a simple device, consisting of an iron pipe sticking up from the boat, with an eye at one side of the top end and a sight-hole at the bottom. The reflection that comes into the eye at the top is reflected downward by a mirror set at an angle. Another mirror at the bottom turns the reflection into the eye-piece, or sight-hole. Length of the image—just as the lenses in a camera glass do. To look around him, the captain turns the periscope around, and a gauge tells him in which direction it is pointed.

"The universal observation periscope (Fig. 2) is also a steel pipe, but it has a continuous eye all around the top—looking in all directions at once. This eye is a thick glass lens (A) inside the pipe, enlarge the size of the image—just as the lenses in a camera glass do. To look around him, the captain turns the periscope around, and a gauge tells him in which direction it is pointed.

Press Clippings

Francis Roll-Wheeler.
There are several large commercial press clipping bureaus, whose work is of the highest importance, but they only cover a limited field. For people living in the small towns, each bureau makes no effort. There is, therefore, a direct field open in every small city, town or village. Every community has its local paper, and every local paper has its local news. Some news is interesting to all the community, some only to the persons interested. Many towns have several papers. Moreover, some local doings are important enough to be given place in the nearest metropolitan daily.

There are very few forces stronger than vanity, and an amazingly large number of people are hungry for every notice of themselves that appears in the papers. They intend to cut them out and paste them in a scrap book, but they forget to, and when they remember, a day or two later, the paper has been thrown away.

Here is where the clipping bureau comes in. Almost any one will agree to pay five dollars for 50 clippings about himself or herself. Hostesses of social events are very responsive. Let them pay in advance. That will enable you to pay your subscription to the papers you have to take. An average day's news would give you 10 to 20 items, or 200 a week, and that would be $10. By sending the clippings two or three at a time, the postage could be kept down to 50 cents, and the envelopes and post-scriptions to less than that. The work could then be widened out to the neighboring town, and quite a satisfactory little income developed. Such a factory would be excellent for an invalid or for a shut-in, many of whom would be glad to earn a few dollars.

Dandruff Soon Ruins The Hair

Girls—if you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple method will never fail.

Second Quarter Lesson XI. 1 Samuel
XVI 4-13. June 13, 1920.
Golden Text: The Spirit of Jehovah came mightily upon David from that day forward. 1 Samuel XVI 13.
A SHEPHERD BOY CHOSEN KING.
That obscure Judean village is in a tumult. The great lord of its past life is broken up. An unlooked-for guest has arrived in the person of a man who outranks the king himself in the royal household and confidence. Samuel, the judge, has made a detour from his ordinary circuit and has come to Bethlehem, least of the cities of Judah. What does his coming portend? The dull town is aroused, while the elders hasten to the gate to forestall if possible, the impending judgment.
A moment later, the principal home in the place, that of the prosperous Judean sheik, Jesse, is astir in preparation for a guest who is the most reverend man of the nation. The sacred banquet is ready. The goodly savor of the roasted heifer fills the place; the guests are engaged. Samuel, at once guest, and master of the feast, is about to take his place. The candidate, however, rough Judean steppes near by, tends his father's sheep. He may have seen the prophet pass, or noted the tumult in the place, but he has his duty. Curiously nor self-interest lure him from his duty. Shepherding sheep has been his unconscious preparation. Shepherd, you know, has developed the traits of courage, patience, and sympathy.
Solitude has been favorable to devotion. As a devout improviser, he has often broken the silence under the stars with the noble strains of his psalmody, accompanying them same with his harp. He has heard the prophet, the candidate, in the care of the sheep, and he hurries without opportunity to make a toilet into the august presence of the prophet. The candidate, in the is in the bloom of life. His healthful occupation has given him a ruddy cheek, while auburn locks upon his head. He is a man of the golden crown he shall soon wear.
But these adolescent charms of person are not to be compared with the graces of the prophet.
The Lord first makes his quest. David breathed deeply the theocratic spirit. He loved the superior life of theocracy. He chose to be loyal and dutiful to Jehovah, and loving and helpful to his fellows. In this he was a man after God's heart. The candidate, in the regular adaptation for the theocratic kingship, a position sub-genius in history.
As David entered the presence of the prophet, he felt the great power of the his mentor said "Up!" "Anoint!"
In a moment the beaten and fragrant oil of the tabernacle was glittering upon those golden locks.
The prophet understood the significance of the scene. A royal destiny for shepherd boy who could divine the heart of the great God. The prophet on, and perhaps the lad, not having been "sanctified" for the occasion went back to the sheep.
David, now known as the anointed the prophets enigmatical, act. 1

IT'S ONLY DOING
MY DUTY, SHE SAYS

Everytime I tell anyone about Tanlac, I feel that I am doing no more than my duty for I can never pay the debt of gratitude I owe the medicine for the good it has done me," said Mrs. George F. Dilges of 726 Chestnut street, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, telling of her remarkable recovery, recently.
"About a year ago I suffered a complete nervous breakdown," she continued, "and was in bed for three weeks. After I did get up I was so weak I could hardly get on my feet.
My mind just seemed to have collapsed completely, even my children playing around me nearly drove me to despair and often I would break down and cry. The pains in my head were awful and I just could think of no agony they caused me.
My digestion was so bad that I could not eat and I could not taste it for hours afterwards. I had sharp pains in my chest and around my heart and there was a constant burning in my stomach. My kidneys seemed to be badly disordered and I had a constant, cutting pain across the small of my back. My sleep was always restless and I would have terrible dreams through the night.
I had got so I could hardly take care of my children, and I was so discouraged I almost lost heart."
"As long as I live I will always feel grateful to my friend who has helped me to try Tanlac, for it has simply made wonderful what was made in me. It was no time after I started taking it until my nerves began to get calm and now they are just as steady as can be and I like to have the children playing around me. I enjoy my new because I can eat just whatever I please without the slightest trouble.
I am free from headaches, my kidneys are in splendid condition and the pains have, just about left back entirely. Already I have gained ten pounds in weight and I am sleeping soundly every night. I am doing my housework now and it is a real pleasure because Tanlac has given me new strength and energy."
Tanlac is sold in Janesville by McCue & Buss and the leading drug stores in every town.

You Can't Rub It Away; Rheumatism is in the Blood

Liniments Will Never Cure.

If you are afflicted with Rheumatism, why waste time with ointments, lotions and other local applications that never did cure Rheumatism, and never will!

Do not try to rub the pain away. Use the sensible plan of finding the cause of the pain, and go after that. Remove the cause, and you remove the pain.

You will never be rid of Rheumatism until you cleanse your blood of the germs that cause the disease. S. S. S. has never had an equal as a blood purifier and scores of sufferers say that it has cleansed their blood of Rheumatism, and removed all trace of the disease from their system.

Get a bottle of S. S. S., and get on the right treatment to-day. Special medical advice free. Address Medical Director, 111 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

One little girl in New Albany, Miss., was without clothes to wear to school, her parents being poor. The Red Cross Juniors provided not only clothes but all necessary school supplies that she might continue her studies.

Over five thousand little Belgians with hearty appetites are fed daily by the Junior Red Cross of America at an average cost of 50 cents for a dollar.

TELL YOUR WIFE CORNS LIFT OFF

Doesn't hurt a bit to lift corns or calluses off with fingers

Not a twinge of pain or soreness before applying, or afterwards. This may sound like a dream to corn-pestered men and women who have been cutting, filing and wearing torturous plasters. Yes! Corns lift off and calluses peel off as if by magic says this Cincinnati authority.

A quarter ounce of Freezone costs but a few cents at any drug store. Apply a few drops directly upon your tender corn or callus, and instantly the soreness disappears; then shortly the corn or callus will be so loose that it lifts off.

Freezone dries instantly. It doesn't eat out the corn or callus, but just shrivels it up so it lifts away without even irritating the surrounding skin. Women should keep it on the dresser and never let a corn or callus ache twice.—Advertisement.

"DANDERINE"

Stops Hair, Coming Out; Doubles Its Beauty.

A few cents buys "Danderine." After an application of "Danderine" you can't find a fallen hair or any dandruff, besides every hair shows new life, vigor, brightness, more color and thickness.

When Run-Down

FOND DU LAC, WIS.—"Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a very good medicine. When I was a girl going to school I got all run-down and weak due to hard studying. I was coming into womanhood and the medicine built me up in fine shape in just a short space of time. I have taken it about seven years ago during expectancy and it helped wonderfully. I had practically suffering and my baby was strong and healthy and has always been. The 'Prescription' has done wonders for me. I think it the best medicine for weak women."—MRS. CARL GUELL, JR., 290 9th Street.

Good looks in woman do not depend upon age, but upon health. You never see a good-looking woman who is weak, run-down.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the best women's ointment there is. It is 50 years old, and its age testifies to its goodness.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S DEVOTIONAL EXERCISES

June 13, 1920. Proverbs XXIV 27-34. Motto: A mistake is a tremendous mental conception that influences the will and leads to action. —Pomeroy.

COMMON MISTAKES IN DAILY LIVING

"Do others before they do you" is the present-day version of the golden rule. The man who practices that may have a success of a sort, but the man who neglects his own character gains little. The main object of life, namely the evolution of moral qualities in the human soul. That is the real business of life. Spiritual lands and stocks are dust in the balance compared to that.

DAILY READINGS

TO THINK ABOUT

What may we learn from the mistakes of others?

What have we learned from our own mistakes?

How can we avoid making mistakes?

DANDELION BLUES

My Aunt Carrie Nelson Ryan,
Cooked a mess of dandelion,
Green and slender,
Smooth and tender,
All that folks would sell or send her (Carrie was a bitter-ender.)

Gee, she took a lotta trouble,
Tested every single bubble,
Tongues and smeller,
Soon could tell her
That at last 'twas rich and mellow,
Ready for the cyclone cellar.

Uncle Abner Keesley Ryan,
Kept a snoplin' an' a-spry'n'
Always groggin'
Round and hopin'
He would find the cellar open,
Where Aunt Carrie hid her hope in.

Folks, He found it! One thing's certain
That I ought to draw the curtain
On this story
For the more he Found he drank and then he'd
Was in heaven bound for glory!

Two days later old Mils' Ryan
Came to his house, sniffin', cryin'
To tell his cousin

OUR DAISY AS AN HISTORIAN

"Ancient History" by W. A. B.

The Constitution is like the Declaration of Independence but longer ancient. It is the oldest of our laws and is read on the 4th of July. The meeting is held at the Soldiers' and Sailors' club and they have a table covered with a flag and a picture of the water.

Abraham Lincoln was the President after George Washington who freed the slaves and wrote the Emancipa-tion of Emancipation. He was an actress named Booth who said E Pluribus Unum which is a motto used chiefly on the United States and all so. Conditional Surrender and he allowed the rebels to keep their horses because they would need them for the spring plowing. The soldiers in a prison called Andersonville were they had to tunnel through the ground in order to get out and had to eat rats.

After the war was over everybody felt better and the Confederate flag was hauled down and there money was used for sick pay. Ever since then there has been but one flag with Liberty and Justice for All and the country has been called the United States.

BIG TRIAL LINED UP FOR SAMSONS

Rogers Park Team Reputed to Have Best Record of Chicago Traveling Nines.

Samson Tractors are lined up against the strongest teams in the Chicago league for tomorrow and Sunday. It will be the severest test of the strength of the locals since their organization this year.

While the Samsons have gone up against some strong teams, especially the Pyrites of Chicago and the McCoy of Milwaukee, and then again the Logan Squares of the Windy City, their records have not been nearly so good as that of Rogers Park who come here tomorrow and spend Sunday with us.

Rogers' Fine Record.

According to sporting writers of Chicago, the record of the Rogers is one of the best in the country.

Furthermore the team is not only considered, but conceded to be the strongest traveling aggregation in the Chicago League.

Included among the victims that made this record, were the American Giants, one of the best colored teams in the country.

They repayed good for evil and was called U. S. Grant which means United States and all so. Conditional Surrender and he allowed the rebels to keep their horses because they would need them for the spring plowing. ## MONROE

[By Gazette Correspondent.]
Monroe, June 11.—Monroe will celebrate the Fourth of July. After canvassing the business interests of the city, members of the fire department decided to put on a Fourth of July celebration and field day. Nearly $1,000 was raised after canvassing the business men, and more has been subscribed.

The speed mania took its toll in Monroe Tuesday night, when four boys were injured and a touring car was all but demolished. The accident occurred about 10:40 on East George street. Alvin Stoldt, driving the car, was in charge of Will Ubert, son of the owner, and was being driven by Miss Florence West. The car was struck by a truck on both sides. Stoldt noticed the ditch ahead and tried to pull his car up onto the road, but he did so the right front wheel collided with the left side of the Ubert car, which caused Stoldt to swerve. His right wheel gave way under the excessive strain, and the car rolled down the embankment, turning it completely over, the car landing top side up. The Ubert car kept on the road and escaped unhurt. Miss West turned the car around immediately after the accident and the occupants picked up Stoldt, who was the most seriously injured, and drove with him to the hospital. He was jammed in between the machines and then thrown to the ground. His clothes were partly torn from his body in the mixup and it was at first feared he was seriously injured.

The markers were placed upon the graves of men who served in the World war and who died before the American Legion was formed. Hereafter only graves of men who belonged to the legion will be marked. # BILLY WHISKERS

The capital of Madeira, Funchal, for that's where our friends were, is a very interesting city, as the kids and cat found out when they reached it. The thing that struck them as being the most curious was the streets, which are used instead of carriages. Some of the streets are so steep they are almost perpendicular, and are paved with small stones set on edge over which these sleds slide, guided by two men who stand on the runners. The steering is done by means of ropes fastened to the sled. People often go up by train to a church called "The Church of the Mount," and then come down in one of these sleds. It takes half an hour to go up and only 10 minutes to come down. Nothing ever travels up this steep, cobble-stone street, but the men who steer the sleds. When the passengers get out of the sleds at the bottom of the mountain, the men pick them up (they are not heavy being made of basket-wood) and carry them on their heads to the top of the hill, one man being at the front and the other at the back end, and they are ready for another trip down.

When our travelers saw these queer-looking basket-sleds with their broad wooden runners, sliding over the cobble-stones instead of snow, they thought it very strange and stopped to watch them go down. When it came out of sight, Button turned to Night and said: "I see a job for you, Mr. Night. If you stay here, those men will catch you and make you drag these sleds back for them, for they know what good climbers goats are."

"Well, if that is the case, I think I will be going, for I would not like that kind of work," replied Night. "They trotted along, looking into this yard and peering into that until they came to a high stone fence they could not see over."

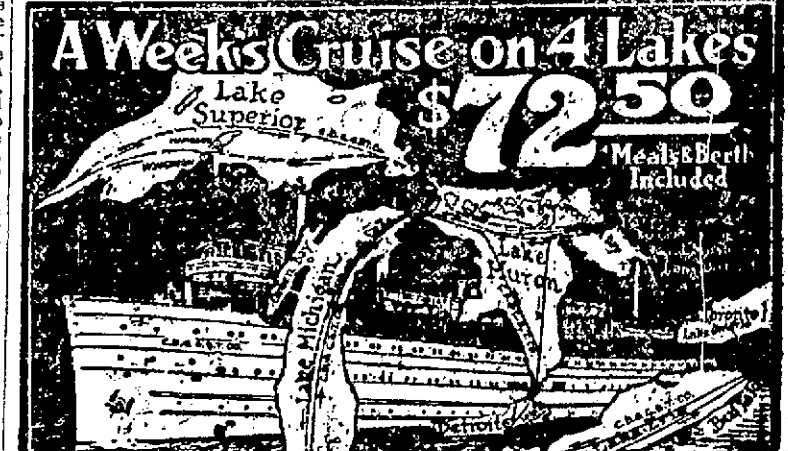

"I wonder what is on the other side of this fence? It must be something very nice to be shut in so. I should judge from the sweet scent of flowers blowing over it that there must be a beautiful garden," said Day. Turning to the cat, she said, "Can you find something to climb so you can look over the fence and see what is there?"

"Certainly," replied the cat. "I see a vine on that house across the street; I can climb that and get a good view." In two seconds she was up the vine and reporting to the kids that stood under her.

"There is the most beautiful garden you ever saw, with hundreds of asked Day.

"Yes, I think I see some tall, iron gates further along the wall. I'll come down and we can go along and find out," said Button.
It was a garden of trouble, you'll learn tomorrow.

What Wisconsin Motorists Think of Horse-Shoe Tires

FROM 1915 to 1920, the total automobile registration in the State of Wisconsin increased 440%. During this same period, the sales of Horse-Shoe tires increased 5209%.

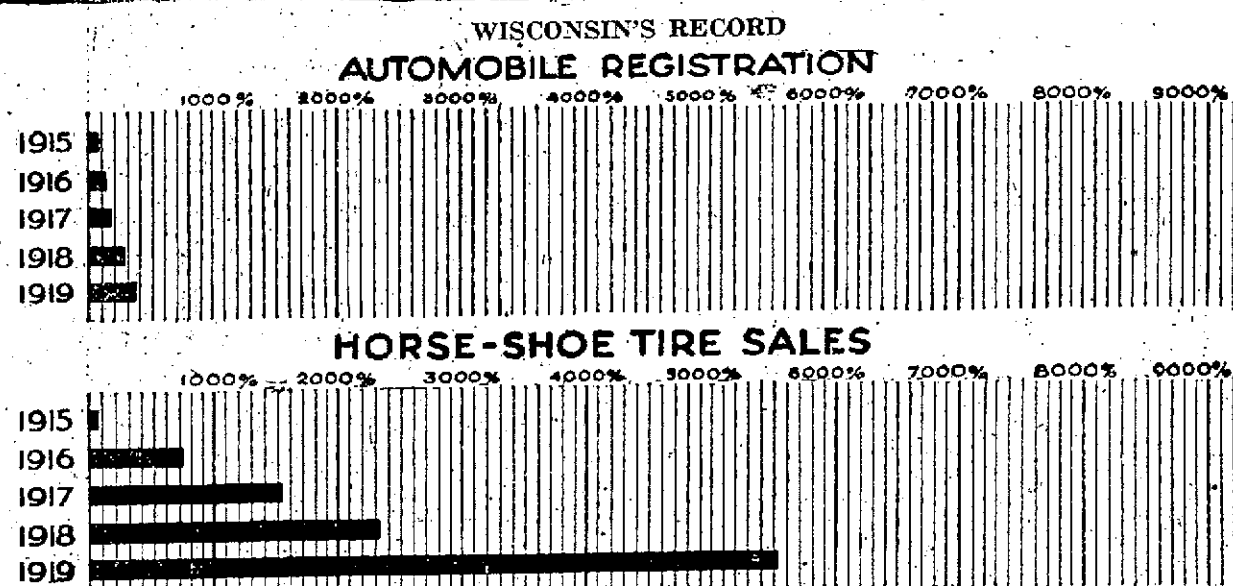

Since the normal demand for any tire depends upon the number of cars in use, this 5209% increase in the sale of Horse-Shoe Tires is a genuine tribute to their long-wearing, trouble-free performance.

In the City of Racine, where Horse-Shoe Tires are made, you will find more Horse-Shoe Tires on the local cars than all other makes put together.

In the building of our own business we have been very careful in selecting the tires that we sold. We have wanted to be sure that they would give real service in the hands of our customers. We know what the Horse-Shoe Cord Tire is and feel free to recommend it to all our customers.
